

Healthy U Coordinator Position

---

What is Healthy U?

Healthy U is a science driven, medically accurate, activity-filled Sexual Integrity program for Junior and Senior High Students. We use the Optimal Sexual Health approach which does include SRA (Sexual Risk Avoidance) but also highlights the many benefits of delaying sexual activity until marriage. The classes currently consist of 4 sessions. All sessions dealing with medical topics (STDs and pregnancy) are taught by our nurses whenever possible.

The Position

We are looking for someone who is passionate about educating students on the great benefits of waiting until marriage. This position has several different duties:

Coordinating. Includes:

- creating and coordinating a schedule with currently participating schools and presenters
- communicating all necessary information between teachers and presenters
- sending out information to perspective schools and providing follow up
- coordinating any trainings or meetings for those involved

Presenting. Includes:

- MCing the 4 sessions. You will be the consistent face of the program. So you will kick off the presentation and introduce the other presenter for the day and then serve as a helper for that presenter. You will also have to present at least two non-medical classes, and possibly all four(which we will train on), dependent on nurse availability.

Creating. Includes:

- You will work with the Director and other designated staff to tweak, rewrite and update the curriculum and slideshow. You will also need to make sure everything is packed correctly for

Qualifications

- a Christ-follower and sign our Statement of Faith and Code of Conduct
- be 100% pro-life
- believe strongly in delaying sex till marriage and it's benefits
- believe strongly in the power of the Gospel and the ability to 'start over' if one has already made the decision to become sexually active before marriage
- be organized
- be engaging with students
- be respectful of those who disagree
- desire to see this program grow
- willing to continue to be educated on this topic and keep their thumb on the pulse of what is going on in the world of students
- must be able to work with programs such as Power Point or Google slides. A plus would be to have an eye for designs that would appeal to students, but not necessary.
- have the time
- will need to be able to work both from home and at the center
- have reliable transportation

Time Commitment

Hours vary per month but range anywhere from 10 – 25, depending on how many schools we are in that month. You can plan on 3-4 hour of prep in addition to travel and teaching time for each session. This is a somewhat flexible position. You will coordinate times with the teachers and then have flexibility to schedule your prep. We tend to have things schedule heavy in the Fall and then again in Spring. Summer is when we do revisions, training and gear up for the next school year.
